2. To begin with, the Chief Commissioner, CGST welcomed all present in the meeting. He then sought an update on the action taken by both the Central and State authorities on the minutes of the previous meeting.

3. During the meeting both the co-chairs discussed about the effectiveness of the Whatsapp group between the officers both Central and State Tax administrations in sharing the real time data with reference to various investigation regarding fake registration, fake ITC, etc. and the need for adopting a common strategy involving identification and cancellation of non-existent registrants.

4. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then requested both the Central as well as State Tax administrations to provide the status on the issuance of welcome kit to all newly registered taxpayers. In reply, the Joint Commissioner CGST intimated that 20-30 welcome kits came undelivered and necessary actions have been taken against those taxpayers after observing due formalities. The Chief Commissioner, CGST suggested to send greetings to the taxpayers on local holidays also to ensure continuity of the business operation of taxpayers.

5. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then sought status of GST liability of Real Estate sector and Rubber Plantations in the state of Tripura. The Chief Commissioner, CGST also enquired about whether the Real Estate companies are following RERA provisions diligently. The Joint Commissioner, CGST replied that the Real Estate companies working in Agartala have been following the RERA norms. The Chief Commissioner, State Taxes informed that the SGST has set up a dedicated Audit team to look into the GST liability in Real Estate and Rubber Plantation sectors. The chief Commissioner, CGST then directed the Joint Commissioner, CGST to assess the GST liability of the Taj Hotel coming up in Agartala. .

6. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then asked whether there is any issue in intelligence sharing among SGST and CGST. The officials of both State as well as Central Tax administrations replied that they have not been facing any issue in intelligence sharing among them.

7. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then sought an update on curtailment of multiple GST Registrations from single IP Address. The Chief Commissioner, State Taxes intimated that PVs of the suspected GSTINs are being carried to address the said issue.

8. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then desired to know the present status of Biometric-Based Aadhaar Authentication. In reply, the Chief Commissioner, State Taxes informed that all the Range offices in their jurisdiction have been equipped with Biometric-Based Aadhaar Authentication facility.

9. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then sought an update on acquiring office building for GSTAT in Tripura. The Joint Commissioner, CGST intimated that re-tendering has been done for acquiring GSTAT building and the entire process should be completed within 3 months. The Chief Commissioner, CGST requested the Joint Commissioner, CGST to expedite the process of acquiring the building for GSTAT. The Chief Commissioner also suggested to keep looking for alternate premises for the GSTAT if needed. For this the Chief Commissioner, state taxes was also requested to arrange for a temporary building for GSTAT till the formalities for acquiring new building for GSTAT have been completed.

10. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then asked both SGST and CGST administration whether they have been facing any difficulties in following Railways Freight marketing Circular No.07 of 2014 dated 23.02.2024 on e-way bills check. To which both SGST and CGST replied that they have not been facing any such issue in following the said Notification by the Railways.

11. The Chief Commissioner then sought and update on this issue of TDS deduction and late filing of GST returns by the state DDOs. To which the Joint Commissioner, CGST replied that recently they had organized a training program to sensitize the state DDOs about the said issue.

12. The Chief Commissioner then suggested both Central and State Tax administrations to organize GST outreach programs to disseminate information about the impact of recently announced New GST reforms particularly in Automobile and Rubber Plantation sectors. The Chief Commissioner, State Taxes assured to organize such outreach programs shortly. The Chief Commissioner, CGST then directed the Joint Commissioner, CGST to conduct a study on the impact of New GST reforms on the prominent products/sectors in state of Tripura.
